Waterloo Regional Kart Club Race 11 Report

With the club now well into the second half of the season the point's battle for the class championships are starting to heat up. The front runners are trying to build on their lead, and the rest of the field is scrambling for every point they can get to catch the leaders, or finish the year on a strong note. All of this made for some great racing August 14th at Flamboro Speedway.

The club was pleased to have Donnelly's pub located in Dundas Ontario as our race day sponsor. The owners Chris and Jullie were at the track to award trophies to the following race winners.
