Club History

The Waterloo Regional Kart Club (WRKC) was founded in 1981 by Rob Good, Andre and Robin Demerchant. The WRKC is a grass roots division of karting sustained by a hard working Executive team and many volunteers from within the club and community. The first year the Club organized 5 races at Bingemans Park. In 1983 the Club moved to Erbsville Kartway in Waterloo. Returning to Bingemans in 1991 the Club continued to grow significantly, obtaining renowned status as one of Ontario's largest and most competitive kart clubs. In the fall of 2007 a dream was realized. With the support of it's past and present members and hundreds of individual and commercial contributors, the Club began building its own race track located at the Flamboro Speedway. The future and a "home track" are now secured with a long term contract.
